

Company Description

The Ruth Collective is a grass-roots network dedicated to assisting individuals in need of reproductive or gender-affirming healthcare by providing concierge-style services such as transportation, lodging, meals, emotional and after-care support, and financial aid, when available. Our mission is to create a community of Ruths, across the country, to support those facing vulnerable times in accessing care.

Role Description

This is a flexible, remote, unpaid, volunteer position as a Companion Ruth. The Companion Ruth position involves assisting individuals traveling who are out-of-state for healthcare by organizing program services with other Ruths and resources and ensuring their emotional and mental well-being is supported. We are actively recruiting multiple Ruths, nationwide.

Strong interpersonal and communication skills

- Empathetic, compassionate, care-giver nature
- Organizational and time management abilities
- Ability to work independently and remotely
- Experience in social services is a plus
- Understanding of reproductive healthcare issues
- Knowledge of resources and support services
- Availability to commit to the volunteer program and the clients we serve

Our Commitment to Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion

The Ruth Collective advocates to prioritize anti-racism, anti-oppression, justice, and healing at The Ruth Collective by acknowledging the inequities and trauma that exist both in our internal work community and in each of our broader communities. The Ruth Collective values a staff, board and volunteer team that reflects all those we serve so that impacted communities feel their voices and lived experiences are considered in decision making. We are committed to strengthening our relationships and building partnerships with people, organizations, and businesses who reflect the diverse identities and cultures of the women we serve. We believe bringing more unique, diverse voices to the table to influence our policies and practices will help us provide better advocacy and support and arrive at better outcomes for women.

We are publicly recruiting for board positions to ensure that we move beyond our immediate networks and honor our ongoing commitment to creating a board that is diverse in its composition, inclusive in its culture, and equity-focused in its approach to how it views its mission, its work, and the communities it serves.
